LESSON 1 – Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction

I. LESSON INFORMATION

Category	Details
Language	Waray-Waray
Language Variety	Western Samar Waray
Level	Beginner
Unit	Unit 1 – Fundamentals
Lesson Number	1
Lesson Title	Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction
Estimated Duration	25–30 minutes
Difficulty	Easy
Prerequisite	None
Total Experience Points	60 XP

Lesson Description:

In this lesson, learners will become familiar with basic Waray greetings and expressions used when meeting and interacting with other people. They will learn how to greet someone, ask how they are, introduce themselves, and ask for another person's name and place of origin.

These expressions are useful in everyday situations, especially when meeting new people, talking with friends, or introducing oneself to members of a community where Waray is spoken.

II. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Recognize and understand common Waray greetings.
2. Use appropriate greetings depending on the time of day.
3. Ask and respond to simple questions about someone's well-being.

4. Introduce themselves using basic Waray expressions.
5. Ask another person's name and place of origin.
6. Participate in a short introductory conversation in Waray.
7. Recognize and practice the pronunciation of basic Waray words and phrases.

III. LESSON INTRODUCTION

A. Why Learn Greetings and Self-Introduction?

Greetings are among the first expressions people learn when studying a new language. They allow individuals to begin conversations, show politeness, and establish connections with others.

In Waray-speaking communities, greetings and introductions are commonly used when meeting someone for the first time, visiting another person's home, or starting a conversation with friends and acquaintances.

Learning these expressions will help you become more comfortable communicating with Waray speakers.

B. What You Will Learn

In this lesson, you will learn how to say:

- Good morning.
- Good afternoon.
- Good evening.
- How are you?
- I am fine.
- What is your name?
- My name is...
- Where are you from?
- I am from...

By the end of the lesson, you should be able to introduce yourself and exchange basic greetings in Waray.

IV. VOCABULARY

The following words and expressions will help you form basic greetings and introductions.

A. Common Greetings

English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
Good morning	Maupay nga aga	ma-u-pay nga a-ga

Good afternoon	Maupay nga kulop	ma-u-pay nga ku-lop
Good evening	Maupay nga gab-i	ma-u-pay nga gab-i
Hello	Kumusta	ku-mus-ta
How are you?	Kumusta ka?	ku-mus-ta ka
I am fine.	Maupay man.	ma-u-pay man
Thank you.	Salamat.	sa-la-mat
Thank you very much.	Damo nga salamat.	da-mo nga sa-la-mat
You're welcome.	Waray sapayan.	wa-ray sa-pa-yan

B. Common Responses and Expressions

English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
Yes	Oo	o-o
No	Diri	di-ri
Please	Alayon	a-la-yon
I'm sorry.	Pasayloa ako.	pa-say-lo-a a-ko
Excuse me.	Pasaylo.	pa-say-lo
That's okay.	Okay la.	o-key la
Goodbye.	Babay.	ba-bay
See you again.	Kitaay kita utro.	ki-ta-ay ki-ta ut-ro

C. Personal Pronouns

Personal pronouns are words used to refer to people. They are important when introducing yourself and talking about other individuals.

English	Waray	Usage
I / Me	Ako	Refers to the speaker
You (singular)	Ikaw / Ka	Refers to one person being addressed
He / She	Hiya	Refers to another person

We (excluding the listener)	Kami	Refers to the speaker and others, but not the listener
We (including the listener)	Kita	Includes both the speaker and listener
You (plural)	Kamo	Refers to two or more people
They	Hira	Refers to other people

Important Note:

Waray distinguishes between kami and kita.

- Kami – We, but not you.
- Kita – We, including you.

Understanding this distinction will help learners use pronouns correctly in future lessons.

D. Words Used in Self-Introduction

English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
Name	Ngaran	nga-ran
From	Taga	ta-ga
Where	Diin	di-in
What	Ano	a-no
My	Akon	a-kon
Your	Imo	i-mo
Today	Yana	ya-na
Age	Edad	e-dad
Year / Years	Anyos	an-yos

V. USEFUL PHRASES AND SENTENCES

The following expressions will help you introduce yourself and ask simple questions.

A. Introducing Yourself

English	Waray

I am...	Ako hi...
My name is Ana.	An akon ngaran hi Ana.
I am from Samar.	Taga Samar ako.
I am from the Philippines.	Taga Pilipinas ako.
I am happy to meet you.	Nalilipay ako nga makilala ka.

Pattern to Remember:

To introduce your name:

An akon ngaran hi + Name.

Example:

- English: My name is Maria.
- Waray: An akon ngaran hi Maria.

To introduce your place of origin:

Taga + Place + ako.

Example:

- English: I am from Samar.
- Waray: Taga Samar ako.

B. Asking Questions

English	Waray
What is your name?	Ano an imo ngaran?
How are you?	Kumusta ka?
Where are you from?	Taga diin ka?
How old are you?	Pira na an imo edad?
Are you okay?	Okay ka la?

C. Giving Simple Responses

English	Waray

My name is Juan.	An akon ngaran hi Juan.
I am fine.	Maupay man.
I am from Western Samar.	Taga Samar ako.
I am eighteen years old.	Disiotso anyos ako.
Yes, I am fine.	Oo, maupay man.
No, I am not okay.	Diri, diri ako okay.

Learning Tip:

Pay attention to the words akon and imo.

- Akon means "my" or "mine."
- Imo means "your" or "yours."

These words will appear frequently in conversations and introductions.

VI. LESSON PROPER

A. Greeting Someone

Greetings are used to acknowledge someone and begin a conversation. In Waray, some greetings depend on the time of day.

English	Waray
Good morning!	Maupay nga aga!
Good afternoon!	Maupay nga kulop!
Good evening!	Maupay nga gab-i!

Examples:

1. When meeting someone in the morning:
   A: Maupay nga aga!
   B: Maupay nga aga!
   English:
   A: Good morning!
   B: Good morning!

2. When meeting someone in the evening:
   A: Maupay nga gab-i!
   B: Maupay nga gab-i!
   English:
   A: Good evening!
   B: Good evening!

B. Asking How Someone Is

After greeting someone, you can ask how they are doing.

Question:

Kumusta ka?

English Translation:

How are you?

Possible Response:

Maupay man.

English Translation:

I'm fine.

You may also express gratitude after receiving a response.

Example:

A: Kumusta ka?

B: Maupay man. Salamat.

English:

A: How are you?

B: I'm fine. Thank you.

C. Asking for Someone's Name

When meeting someone for the first time, it is common to ask for their name.

Question:

Ano an imo ngaran?

English Translation:

What is your name?

Response:

An akon ngaran hi Ana.

English Translation:

My name is Ana.

Remember:

- Ano = What
- Imo = Your
- Ngaran = Name
- Akon = My

D. Asking Where Someone Is From

You can also ask someone about their hometown or place of origin.

Question:

Taga diin ka?

English Translation:

Where are you from?

Response:

Taga Samar ako.

English Translation:

I am from Samar.

You can replace Samar with the name of another place.

Examples:

- Taga Tacloban ako. – I am from Tacloban.
- Taga Catbalogan ako. – I am from Catbalogan.
- Taga Calbayog ako. – I am from Calbayog.

E. Expressing Gratitude

When someone helps you or gives you something, you can express appreciation.

Situation	Waray Expression	English
Saying thank you	Salamat.	Thank you.
Showing greater appreciation	Damo nga salamat.	Thank you very much.
Responding to thanks	Waray sapayan.	You're welcome.

Example:

A: Salamat!

B: Waray sapayan.

English:

A: Thank you!

B: You're welcome.

VII. GUIDED CONVERSATIONS

Read the following conversations. Pay attention to how greetings and introductions are used in everyday situations.

Answer Key

Question	Correct Answer
1	B
2	C
3	B
4	C
5	B
6	C

7	B
8	A
9	C
10	B

Suggested Passing Score: 7 out of 10 (70%).

Learners who achieve at least 70% may proceed to the next lesson. Learners who score below 70% should review the vocabulary, useful phrases, and guided conversations before retaking the assessment.

X. GAMIFICATION

Gamification elements encourage learners to complete lessons, practice regularly, and improve their language-learning progress.

A. Experience Points (XP)

Completed Activity	XP Reward
Vocabulary Practice	10 XP
Useful Phrases Practice	10 XP
Guided Conversation	10 XP
Practice Activities	15 XP
Lesson Assessment	15 XP
Total	60 XP

B. Lesson Badge

Badge Name: Maupay nga Pakigkilala Badge

English Meaning: Good Introduction Badge

Unlock Requirement:

- Complete all lesson activities.
- Pass the lesson assessment with at least 70%.

C. Progress Tracking

The application records the learner's:

- Lesson completion status.
- Assessment score.
- XP earned.
- Badge achievements.
- Number of attempts.

These records help learners monitor their progress and encourage them to continue studying.

XI. FACIAL EXPRESSION RECOGNITION INTEGRATION

The application may include an optional facial expression recognition activity during selected parts of the lesson.

A. Suggested Integration

After completing the guided conversations, learners may participate in a short expression-based activity.

Activity: Recognize the Expression

The application displays a simple facial expression and asks learners to identify the expression that most closely matches the displayed image.

Possible labels include:

- Smiling expression
- Neutral expression
- Surprised expression
- Sad expression

The activity may be used to introduce an interactive element while learners practice recognizing expressions.

B. Learning Application

For example, after reading a greeting conversation, the application may display a character with a smiling expression.

The learner can observe the expression and connect it with the social context of a friendly greeting.

C. Important Considerations

Facial expression recognition is a supplementary feature, not a direct measurement of a learner's emotions, comprehension, motivation, or language proficiency.

- Camera access must be optional.
- Learners must be informed when camera-based processing is used.
- Learners should be able to complete the lesson without enabling the camera.
- Facial expression results must not determine assessment scores, XP, badges, or lesson completion.
- The application should avoid assuming that a particular facial expression always represents a specific emotion.

XII. LESSON COMPLETION AND EXPECTED OUTCOME

A. Lesson Completion Requirements

To complete Lesson 1, learners should:

1. Review the vocabulary list.
2. Complete the useful phrases practice.
3. Read and understand the guided conversations.
4. Finish all required practice activities.
5. Achieve at least 70% in the lesson assessment.

B. Lesson Summary

In this lesson, you learned basic Waray greetings and expressions used when meeting other people.

You learned how to:

- Greet someone in the morning, afternoon, and evening.
- Ask and answer "How are you?"
- Introduce yourself.
- Ask for someone's name.
- Ask where someone is from.
- Express gratitude and respond politely.

C. Expected Learning Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to exchange basic greetings and introduce themselves using simple Waray expressions.

They should also be able to recognize common introductory phrases and understand their meanings when used in everyday conversations.

LESSON 2 – Common Expressions and Responses

I. LESSON INFORMATION

Category	Details
Language	Waray-Waray
Language Variety	Western Samar Waray
Level	Beginner
Unit	Unit 1 – Fundamentals
Lesson Number	2
Lesson Title	Common Expressions and Responses
Estimated Duration	25–30 minutes
Difficulty	Easy
Prerequisite	Lesson 1 – Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction
Total Experience Points	60 XP

Lesson Description:

In this lesson, learners will study common Waray expressions used in everyday conversations. They will learn how to agree or disagree, accept or refuse something, ask for clarification, make simple requests, and respond politely to other people.

These expressions are useful in different situations, such as talking with friends, asking for assistance, responding to questions, and communicating with people in Waray-speaking communities.

II. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Identify common Waray expressions used in everyday communication.
2. Use appropriate expressions when agreeing or disagreeing.
3. Accept or refuse simple requests and offers.
4. Express gratitude and apologize when necessary.
5. Ask someone to repeat or clarify a statement.
6. Respond appropriately to simple questions and statements.
7. Participate in short conversations using common Waray expressions.

III. LESSON INTRODUCTION

A. Why Learn Common Expressions?

Everyday conversations involve more than greetings and introductions. People regularly ask questions, make requests, express opinions, agree or disagree, and respond to different situations.

Learning common expressions helps you communicate more naturally and understand what other people are saying.

For example, when someone offers you something, you should know how to accept or politely refuse it. When you do not understand a statement, you should also know how to ask the speaker to repeat it.

B. What You Will Learn

In this lesson, you will learn how to say:

- Yes and no.
- Okay and not okay.
- I understand and I don't understand.
- Thank you and you're welcome.
- Please and excuse me.
- I'm sorry.

- Can you repeat that?
- Please speak slowly.
- I don't know.
- That's right and that's wrong.

Learning Note:

Some Waray expressions may change depending on the sentence and situation. For example, a word used as a command may require additional words to sound polite.

V. USEFUL PHRASES AND SENTENCES

These expressions will help you respond to other people and communicate your needs.

A. Agreeing and Disagreeing

English	Waray

Yes, that's right.	Oo, husto ito.
No, that's not right.	Diri, diri ito husto.
I agree.	Nauyon ako.
I don't agree.	Diri ako nauyon.
That's true.	Tinuod ito.
That's not true.	Diri ito tinuod.
Maybe.	Bangin.

Pattern to Remember:

The word Oo is used to express agreement or give a positive answer, while Diri is used to express disagreement or give a negative answer.

Examples:

- English: Yes, I agree.
- Waray: Oo, nauyon ako.
- English: No, I don't agree.
- Waray: Diri, diri ako nauyon.

B. Accepting and Refusing

English	Waray
Yes, I want it.	Oo, karuyag ko ito.

No, I don't want it.	Diri, diri ko karuyag ito.
Yes, I can.	Oo, kaya ko.
No, I can't.	Diri, diri ko kaya.
That's okay.	Okay la.
That's fine.	Maupay la.

Example:

A: Karuyag mo ba ini?

B: Oo, karuyag ko ini.

English:

A: Do you want this?

B: Yes, I want this.

C. Asking for Clarification

English	Waray
What did you say?	Ano an imo ginyakan?
Can you repeat that?	Pwede mo ba ito utrohon?
Please speak slowly.	Alayon, hinay-hinay la pagyakan.

What does that mean?	Ano an kahulogan hito?
I don't understand.	Diri ko nasasabtan.
Can you explain it?	Pwede mo ba ito isaysay?

Example:

A: (Says something in Waray.)

B: Pasaylo, diri ko nasasabtan.

A: Pwede ko ba ito utrohon?

English:

A: (Says something in Waray.)

B: Excuse me, I don't understand.

A: Can I repeat it?

D. Asking for Help

English	Waray
Can you help me?	Pwede mo ba ako buligan?
Please help me.	Alayon, buligi ako.
I need help.	Kinahanglan ko hin bulig.
Thank you for helping me.	Salamat ha pagbulig ha akon.

Can you show me?	Pwede mo ba ipakita ha akon?

E. Everyday Responses

English	Waray
I know.	Maaram ako.
I don't know.	Diri ako maaram.
I understand now.	Nasasabtan ko na.
Not yet.	Diri pa.
Wait a moment.	Hulat anay.
Come here.	Kadi ngadi.
Go there.	Kadto didto.
Let's go.	Kadto na kita.

VI. LESSON PROPER

A. Expressing Agreement and Disagreement

When talking with someone, you may need to express whether you agree or disagree with what they are saying.

In Waray, Oo and Diri are two basic words that help communicate positive and negative responses.

Examples:

1. Agreeing:
   A: Taga Samar ka?
   B: Oo.
   English:
   A: Are you from Samar?
   B: Yes.
2. Disagreeing:
   A: Taga Manila ka?
   B: Diri.
   English:
   A: Are you from Manila?
   B: No.

B. Accepting and Refusing an Offer

When someone offers you something, you can accept or refuse politely.

Example 1 – Accepting an Offer

A: Karuyag mo ba hin tubig?

B: Oo, karuyag ko.

English:

A: Do you want some water?

B: Yes, I do.

Example 2 – Refusing an Offer

A: Karuyag mo ba hin pagkaon?

B: Diri, salamat.

English:

A: Do you want some food?

B: No, thank you.

C. Asking Someone to Repeat

Sometimes, you may not hear or understand what another person says. Instead of guessing, you can politely ask the speaker to repeat the statement.

Useful Expressions:

- Diri ko nasasabtan. – I don't understand.
- Ano an imo ginyakan? – What did you say?
- Pwede mo ba ito utrohon? – Can you repeat that?
- Alayon, hinay-hinay la pagyakan. – Please speak slowly.

Example:

A: Pakadto kita ha merkado buwas.

B: Pasaylo, diri ko nasasabtan. Pwede mo ba ito utrohon?

A: Pakadto kita ha merkado buwas.

English:

A: Let's go to the market tomorrow.

B: Excuse me, I don't understand. Can you repeat that?

A: Let's go to the market tomorrow.

D. Asking for Assistance

When you need help, you can use simple expressions to communicate your request.

Example:

A: Pasaylo, pwede mo ba ako buligan?

B: Oo, ano an imo kinahanglan?

A: Kinahanglan ko hin bulig hini.

B: Sige, buligan ta ikaw.

English:

A: Excuse me, can you help me?

B: Yes, what do you need?

A: I need help with this.

B: Okay, I will help you.

E. Responding Politely

Polite expressions help make conversations more respectful and friendly.

For example:

A: Salamat ha imo bulig.

B: Waray sapayan.

English:

A: Thank you for your help.

B: You're welcome.

Remember to use expressions of gratitude when someone helps you or does something kind for you.

VII. GUIDED CONVERSATIONS

Read the following conversations and study how common expressions are used in different situations.

Answer Key

Question	Correct Answer
1	B
2	C
3	B

4	A
5	B
6	B
7	A
8	C
9	A
10	B

Suggested Passing Score: 7 out of 10 (70%).

Learners who achieve at least 70% may proceed to the next lesson. Learners who score below 70% should review the vocabulary and practice activities before retaking the assessment.

X. GAMIFICATION

Gamification elements encourage learners to practice common expressions and improve their ability to communicate in everyday situations.

A. Experience Points (XP)

Completed Activity	XP Reward
Vocabulary Practice	10 XP

Useful Phrases Practice	10 XP
Guided Conversation	10 XP
Practice Activities	15 XP
Lesson Assessment	15 XP
Total	60 XP

B. Lesson Badge

Badge Name: Waray nga Makigkomunikar Badge

English Meaning: Waray Communication Badge

Unlock Requirements:

- Complete all required lesson activities.
- Pass the lesson assessment with at least 70%.

C. Progress Tracking

The application records the learner's:

- Lesson completion status.
- Assessment score.
- XP earned.
- Badge achievements.
- Number of assessment attempts.

XI. FACIAL EXPRESSION RECOGNITION INTEGRATION

The application may provide an optional facial expression recognition activity as a supplementary interactive feature.

A. Suggested Integration

Activity: Match the Expression

The application displays a character showing a particular facial expression. Learners can observe the character and select the expression that best describes the displayed face.

Possible labels include:

- Smiling expression.
- Neutral expression.
- Surprised expression.
- Sad expression.

B. Learning Application

After studying expressions used to agree, disagree, or respond to someone, learners may be shown characters in different conversational situations.

For example, a character may smile while saying thank you. Learners can connect the visual situation with the appropriate conversational expression.

C. Important Considerations

- Camera access must remain optional.
- Facial expression recognition must not be treated as a reliable determination of a learner's actual emotions or understanding.
- Learners must be able to complete the lesson without camera access.
- Recognition results must not affect XP, badges, assessment scores, or lesson completion.

XII. LESSON COMPLETION AND EXPECTED OUTCOME

A. Lesson Completion Requirements

To complete Lesson 2, learners should:

1. Review the vocabulary list.
2. Practice the useful expressions and sentences.
3. Read and understand the guided conversations.
4. Complete the required practice activities.
5. Achieve at least 70% in the lesson assessment.

B. Lesson Summary

In this lesson, you learned common Waray expressions used in everyday communication.

You learned how to:

- Agree and disagree.
- Accept and refuse offers.
- Express gratitude and apologize.
- Ask someone to repeat or explain something.
- Ask for help.
- Respond appropriately in simple conversations.

C. Expected Learning Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to use common Waray expressions when communicating with other people. They should also be able to respond appropriately to simple questions, requests, and everyday conversational situations.

LESSON 3 – Numbers and Counting

I. LESSON INFORMATION

Category	Details
Language	Waray-Waray
Language Variety	Western Samar Waray
Level	Beginner
Unit	Unit 1 – Fundamentals
Lesson Number	3
Lesson Title	Numbers and Counting
Estimated Duration	25–35 minutes
Difficulty	Easy
Prerequisite	Lesson 2 – Common Expressions and Responses
Total Experience Points	60 XP

Lesson Description:

In this lesson, learners will become familiar with basic Waray numbers and counting expressions. They will learn how to count from one to twenty, recognize commonly used larger numbers, and use numbers in simple everyday conversations.

Numbers are important in daily communication. They are used when telling someone's age, counting objects, asking about quantities, giving prices, and sharing numerical information.

II. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Recognize and pronounce basic Waray numbers.
2. Count from one to twenty in Waray.
3. Identify commonly used tens and larger numbers.
4. Ask and answer questions involving quantities.
5. Express their age using Waray numbers.
6. Use numbers when discussing prices and quantities.
7. Participate in simple conversations involving numbers.

III. LESSON INTRODUCTION

A. Why Learn Numbers and Counting?

Numbers are part of everyday communication. People use them when shopping, counting objects, telling time, discussing age, and sharing information.

For example, you may need to tell someone how old you are, ask how many items they have, or understand the price of something.

Learning numbers in Waray will help you understand and participate in these everyday situations.

B. What You Will Learn

In this lesson, you will learn:

- Basic numbers from one to ten.
- Numbers from eleven to twenty.
- Commonly used tens and larger numbers.
- How to ask how many or how much.
- How to express your age.
- How to use numbers when discussing quantities and prices.

IV. VOCABULARY

A. Numbers from One to Ten

Start by learning the basic Waray numbers. These are the foundation for counting.

Number	English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
1	One	Usa	u-sa
2	Two	Duha	du-ha
3	Three	Tulo	tu-lo
4	Four	Upat	u-pat
5	Five	Lima	li-ma
6	Six	Unom	u-nom
7	Seven	Pito	pi-to
8	Eight	Walo	wa-lo
9	Nine	Siyam	si-yam
10	Ten	Napulo	na-pu-lo

Learning Tip:

Practice saying the numbers in order several times. Once you can remember them, try counting objects around you using Waray.

B. Numbers from Eleven to Twenty

The following forms are commonly encountered in everyday Philippine speech. Some are Spanish-derived number words used in Waray conversations.

Number	English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
11	Eleven	Onse	on-se
12	Twelve	Dose	do-se
13	Thirteen	Trese	tre-se
14	Fourteen	Katorse	ka-tor-se
15	Fifteen	Kinse	kin-se
16	Sixteen	Disisais	di-si-sais
17	Seventeen	Disisiete	di-si-sye-te
18	Eighteen	Disiotso	di-syot-so
19	Nineteen	Disinuebe	di-si-nwe-be

20	Twenty	Baynte	bayn-te

Learning Tip:

Listen carefully to the syllables when practicing these numbers. Some number words may have spelling or pronunciation variations in different communities.

C. Commonly Used Larger Numbers

The following forms are useful when discussing larger quantities. Waray speakers may also use Spanish-derived or other familiar number forms depending on context.

Number	English	Waray Form
20	Twenty	Baynte
30	Thirty	Traynta
40	Forty	Kwarenta
50	Fifty	Singkwenta
60	Sixty	Saisenta
70	Seventy	Sitenta
80	Eighty	Otsenta
90	Ninety	Nobenta

100	One hundred	Usa ka gatos
1,000	One thousand	Usa ka yukot

Important Note:

Number systems and everyday number usage can vary among Waray-speaking communities. The larger-number forms above are candidate teaching forms and should be checked by a Western Samar language evaluator, especially before teaching compound numbers as fixed patterns.

D. Words Used When Counting

English	Waray	Pronunciation Guide
Number	Numero	nu-me-ro
How many?	Pira?	pi-ra
How much?	Pira?	pi-ra
Age	Edad	e-dad
Years old	Anyos	an-yos
Many	Damo	da-mo
Few	Pipira	pi-pi-ra

All	Ngatanan	nga-ta-nan
Each	Kada	ka-da
More	Dugang	du-gang
Less	Kulang	ku-lang

V. USEFUL PHRASES AND SENTENCES

A. Asking About Numbers and Quantities

English	Waray
How many?	Pira?
How many are there?	Pira hira?
How many do you have?	Pira an imo aada?
How much is this?	Pira ini?
How many are you?	Pira kamo?
How many people are there?	Pira an tawo?

B. Expressing Your Age

English	Waray
How old are you?	Pira na an imo edad?
I am eighteen years old.	Disiotso anyos ako.
I am twenty years old.	Baynte anyos ako.
I am fifteen years old.	Kinse anyos ako.

Pattern to Remember:

To express your age:

[Number] + anyos ako.

Examples:

- English: I am sixteen years old.
- Waray: Disisais anyos ako.
- English: I am eighteen years old.
- Waray: Disiotso anyos ako.

C. Counting Objects

English	Waray
One book	Usa nga libro
Two books	Duha nga libro

Three books	Tulo nga libro
Four people	Upat nga tawo
Five children	Lima nga bata
Ten students	Napulo nga estudyante

Learning Tip:

The word nga connects a number with the noun being counted in these examples.

D. Talking About Prices

English	Waray
How much is this?	Pira ini?
It costs ten pesos.	Napulo ka pesos.
It costs twenty pesos.	Baynte pesos.
I have fifty pesos.	May-ada ako singkwenta pesos.
I have one hundred pesos.	May-ada ako usa ka gatos nga pesos.

These examples introduce common price expressions. Actual sentence construction may vary depending on the speaker and situation.

VI. LESSON PROPER

A. Counting from One to Ten

The first step in learning Waray numbers is memorizing the numbers from one to ten.

English	Waray
One	Usa
Two	Duha
Three	Tulo
Four	Upat
Five	Lima
Six	Unom
Seven	Pito
Eight	Walo
Nine	Siyam
Ten	Napulo

Example: Counting Everyday Objects

Imagine that you have several objects in front of you.

- One book – Usa nga libro
- Two books – Duha nga libro
- Three books – Tulo nga libro
- Four books – Upat nga libro
- Five books – Lima nga libro

Practice:

Look around your surroundings and count five different objects using Waray numbers.

B. Counting from Eleven to Twenty

After learning the basic numbers, practice counting from eleven to twenty.

Number	Waray
11	Onse
12	Dose
13	Trese
14	Katorse
15	Kinse
16	Disisais
17	Disisiete

18	Disiotso
19	Disinuebe
20	Baynte

Example:

A: Pira an libro nga aada ha lamesa?

B: Kinse nga libro.

English:

A: How many books are on the table?

B: Fifteen books.

C. Asking and Answering About Age

Numbers are often used when introducing yourself and asking other people about their age.

Question:

Pira na an imo edad?

English Translation:

How old are you?

Response:

Disiotso anyos ako.

English Translation:

I am eighteen years old.

Additional Examples:

- Kinse anyos ako. – I am fifteen years old.
- Baynte anyos ako. – I am twenty years old.

- Disisais anyos ako. – I am sixteen years old.

D. Asking About Quantities

You can use pira to ask how many or how much something is, depending on the context.

Example 1 – Counting People

A: Pira kamo?

B: Duha kami.

English:

A: How many are you?

B: There are two of us.

Example 2 – Counting Objects

A: Pira an mansanas?

B: Lima.

English:

A: How many apples are there?

B: Five.

E. Using Numbers When Shopping

Numbers are useful when buying things because they help you understand prices and quantities.

Example:

A: Pira ini?

B: Baynte pesos.

A: Sige, usa la.

English:

A: How much is this?

B: Twenty pesos.

A: Okay, just one.

VII. GUIDED CONVERSATIONS

Read the following conversations and observe how numbers are used in everyday situations.

Conversation 1: Asking Someone's Age

Speaker	Waray	English
Ana	Pira na an imo edad?	How old are you?
Maria	Disiotso anyos ako. Ikaw?	I am eighteen years old. And you?
Ana	Disisais anyos ako.	I am sixteen years old.

Answer Key

Question	Correct Answer
1	B

2	B
3	A
4	C
5	B
6	C
7	B
8	A
9	C
10	C

Suggested Passing Score: 7 out of 10 (70%).

Learners who achieve at least 70% may proceed to the next lesson. Learners who score below 70% should review the number vocabulary and practice activities before retaking the assessment.

X. GAMIFICATION

A. Experience Points (XP)

Completed Activity	XP Reward

Number Vocabulary Practice	10 XP
Useful Phrases Practice	10 XP
Guided Conversation	10 XP
Practice Activities	15 XP
Lesson Assessment	15 XP
Total	60 XP

B. Lesson Badge

Badge Name: Waray Number Explorer Badge

Unlock Requirements:

- Complete all required lesson activities.
- Pass the lesson assessment with at least 70%.

C. Progress Tracking

The application records the learner's:

- Lesson completion status.
- Assessment score.
- XP earned.
- Badge achievements.
- Number of assessment attempts.

XI. FACIAL EXPRESSION RECOGNITION INTEGRATION

The application may include an optional facial expression recognition activity as a supplementary interactive feature.

A. Suggested Integration

Activity: Count and Recognize

After completing the number exercises, learners may participate in a short interactive activity involving numbered objects and character illustrations.

For example, the application can display a character holding a certain number of objects. The learner identifies the quantity and answers a related question.

A facial expression may also be displayed as part of the character illustration to make the activity more engaging.

B. Learning Application

A character may appear with a smiling expression after a learner completes a counting activity. This provides visual feedback while keeping the main learning task focused on recognizing and using numbers.

C. Important Considerations

- Camera access must remain optional.
- Facial expression recognition must not be treated as a reliable measure of the learner's emotions or understanding.
- Learners must be able to complete the lesson without camera access.
- Recognition results must not affect XP, badges, assessment scores, or lesson completion.

XII. LESSON COMPLETION AND EXPECTED OUTCOME

A. Lesson Completion Requirements

To complete Lesson 3, learners should:

1. Review the number vocabulary.
2. Practice counting from one to twenty.
3. Complete the useful phrases exercises.
4. Read and understand the guided conversations.
5. Complete all required practice activities.
6. Achieve at least 70% in the lesson assessment.

B. Lesson Summary

In this lesson, you learned basic Waray numbers and counting expressions.

You learned how to:

- Count from one to ten.
- Recognize numbers from eleven to twenty.
- Identify commonly used larger numbers.
- Ask about age and quantities.
- Express your age.
- Use numbers when discussing prices and everyday objects.

C. Expected Learning Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to recognize and use basic Waray numbers in simple everyday situations. They should also be able to ask and answer basic questions involving age, prices, and quantities.

Lesson 4 – Days, Months, and Time

I. Lesson Information

- Level: Beginner
- Unit: Unit 1 – Fundamentals
- Lesson Number: 4 of 30
- Topic: Days, Months, and Time
- Estimated Duration: 30–40 minutes
- Prerequisite: Lessons 1–3 – Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction, Common Expressions and Responses, and Numbers and Counting

II. Learning Objectives

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Identify and understand the Waray names of the days of the week.
2. Recognize and use the Waray names of the months.
3. Understand basic expressions related to today, tomorrow, and yesterday.
4. Ask and answer simple questions about dates and time.
5. Use basic time expressions in everyday conversations.

III. Lesson Introduction

People talk about days, dates, and time when making plans, attending school, going to work, or arranging meetings. Learning these expressions will help you understand schedules and communicate when an event will happen.

In this lesson, you will learn how to say the days of the week, months of the year, and common time expressions in Waray.

I am available tomorrow.	Bakante ako buwas.	ba-KAN-te A-ko BU-was

VI. Lesson Proper

A. Talking About Days

The days of the week are useful when discussing school schedules, workdays, appointments, and special events.

Examples:

- Domingo an amon adlaw hin pagpahuway. – Sunday is our rest day.
- May klase ako ha Lunes. – I have class on Monday.
- Magkikita kita ha Biyernes. – We will meet on Friday.

To ask someone what day it is, use:

Ano nga adlaw yana? – What day is it today?

You can answer by naming the day:

Martes yana. – It is Tuesday today.

B. Talking About Months

Months are used when discussing birthdays, holidays, school activities, and important events.

Examples:

- Enero an siyahan nga bulan han tuig. – January is the first month of the year.
- Mayo an akon paborito nga bulan. – May is my favorite month.
- Disyembre an kataposan nga bulan han tuig. – December is the last month of the year.

To ask about the current month:

Ano nga bulan yana? – What month is it now?

C. Talking About Today, Tomorrow, and Yesterday

These expressions help learners describe when something happens.

Waray	English
Yana	Today / Now

Buwas	Tomorrow
Kahapon	Yesterday
Yana nga aga	This morning
Yana nga kulop	This afternoon
Yana nga gab-i	Tonight

Examples:

- Aada ako yana ha balay. – I am at home today.
- Makadto ako ha eskwelahan buwas. – I will go to school tomorrow.
- May klase kami kahapon. – We had class yesterday.

D. Telling Time

Waray speakers commonly use Spanish-derived time expressions in everyday conversation.

The following are common examples:

English Time	Waray Expression
1:00	Alas-una
2:00	Alas-dos
3:00	Alas-tres

4:00	Alas-kuwatro
5:00	Alas-singko
6:00	Alas-sais
7:00	Alas-siyete
8:00	Alas-otso
9:00	Alas-nuwebe
10:00	Alas-diyes
11:00	Alas-onse
12:00	Alas-dose

For this beginner lesson, focus first on recognizing whole-hour expressions.

Examples:

- Alas-uno na. – It is one o'clock.
- Alas-singko na. – It is five o'clock.
- Alas-dose na. – It is twelve o'clock.

To ask what time it is:

Pira na an oras? – What time is it?

To specify morning or evening, include the appropriate time-of-day expression when needed.

Achievement Badge: Calendar Explorer Badge

Badge Description: Awarded to learners who successfully complete the lesson and demonstrate knowledge of days, months, and basic time expressions.

Progression: Learners who achieve at least 70% in the assessment can proceed to Lesson 5.

XI. Facial Expression Recognition Integration

The facial expression recognition feature may be used during selected learning activities as an optional supplementary interaction.

Suggested Activity: Learning Check-In

1. Before beginning the lesson, the application may invite learners to activate their camera.
2. During a vocabulary or dialogue activity, the system may display a simple expression-related observation.
3. The application may offer a neutral check-in, such as asking whether the learner wants to repeat the activity or continue.
4. Learners may choose to repeat the lesson or proceed.

Important: Facial expression recognition must not be treated as proof of a learner's emotions, understanding, or engagement. Camera use should be optional, and the recognition result must not affect assessment scores, XP, badges, or lesson completion.

XII. Lesson Completion and Expected Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to:

- Recognize the seven days of the week in Waray.
- Identify the twelve months of the year.
- Understand basic expressions for today, tomorrow, and yesterday.
- Ask and answer simple questions about dates and time.
- Recognize common whole-hour expressions.

VI. Lesson Proper

A. Identifying Family Members

To talk about family, begin by learning the words for immediate family members.

Examples:

- Tatay – Father
- Nanay – Mother
- Anak – Child
- Bugto – Sibling
- Lolo – Grandfather
- Lola – Grandmother

In Waray, bugto can refer to a sibling. To specify whether the sibling is male or female, you can use:

- Bugto nga lalaki – Brother
- Bugto nga babaye – Sister

The terms magurang and manghod can help describe the age relationship between siblings:

- Magurang – Older sibling
- Manghod – Younger sibling

B. Introducing Your Family

You can use the expression:

Amo ini an akon pamilya. – This is my family.

To introduce individual family members, replace the final word with the appropriate family term.

Examples:

- Amo ini an akon tatay. – This is my father.
- Amo ini an akon nanay. – This is my mother.
- Amo ini an akon lolo. – This is my grandfather.
- Amo ini an akon lola. – This is my grandmother.

C. Talking About Your Siblings

To tell someone that you have a sibling, you can use the expression:

May bugto ako. – I have a sibling.

To give more information:

- May duha ako nga bugto. – I have two siblings.
- May bugto ako nga lalaki. – I have a brother.
- May bugto ako nga babaye. – I have a sister.

You can ask someone about their siblings by saying:

Pira an imo bugto? – How many siblings do you have?

D. Describing Your Family

You can use simple sentences to share information about your family.

Examples:

- Damo kami ha pamilya. – There are many of us in the family.
- Gutiay la an amon pamilya. – Our family is small.
- Nag-uukoy kami ha Samar. – We live in Samar.
- Mag-upod kami ha balay. – We are together at home.

E. Important Grammar: My and Your

In Waray, possessive words help show who owns or is related to something.

English	Waray
My	Akon
Your	Imo
His / Her	Iya

Our (excluding the listener)	Amon
Our (including the listener)	Aton
Their	Ira

Examples:

- Akon tatay – My father
- Imo nanay – Your mother
- Iya bugto – His/Her sibling
- Amon pamilya – Our family (excluding you)
- Aton pamilya – Our family (including you)
- Ira lolo – Their grandfather

Achievement Badge: Nature Explorer Badge

Badge Description: Awarded to learners who successfully identify common animals and elements of nature and use basic Waray expressions to describe their surroundings.

Progression: Learners who achieve at least 70% in the assessment can proceed to Lesson 9.

XI. Facial Expression Recognition Integration

Suggested Activity: Animal and Nature Check-In

1. The learner completes an illustrated activity identifying animals and natural elements.
2. The application may invite the learner to activate the camera for an optional expression-recognition activity.
3. The system may offer a neutral check-in asking whether the learner wants to repeat the vocabulary activity or continue.
4. The learner chooses whether to repeat or proceed.

Important: Facial expression recognition is supplementary and must not be treated as proof of a learner's emotions, understanding, or engagement. Camera use must remain optional. Recognition results must not affect assessment scores, XP, badges, or lesson completion.

XII. Lesson Completion and Expected Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to:

- Identify common animals in Waray.
- Recognize vocabulary related to plants and nature.
- Describe familiar animals using simple sentences.
- Identify common natural elements such as the sun, rain, sea, and mountains.
- Use basic nature-related expressions in everyday conversations.

II. Learning Objectives

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Identify common Waray question words and understand their meanings.
2. Ask simple questions about people, places, things, time, and quantities.
3. Give appropriate short answers to common questions.
4. Construct basic questions using familiar Waray vocabulary.
5. Participate in a short everyday conversation using simple questions and responses.

III. Lesson Introduction

Questions are important when communicating with other people. They allow us to learn information, clarify unfamiliar things, and maintain conversations.

In Waray, questions can begin with words such as ano (what), hin-o (who), diin (where), and san-o (when). Learning these expressions will help you communicate in everyday situations.

In this lesson, you will practice asking questions and responding with simple Waray sentences.

VI. Lesson Proper

A. Introducing Someone

When introducing a person, learners can identify the person and explain their relationship to them.

Examples:

- Sangkay ko ini. – This is my friend.
- Nanay ko ini. – This is my mother.
- Tatay ko ini. – This is my father.
- Bugto ko ini. – This is my brother or sister.

The word ko indicates possession or relationship to the speaker in these examples.

B. Identifying a Person

Use hiya when referring to a person who is being discussed.

Examples:

- Sangkay ko hiya. – He or she is my friend.
- Klasmet ko hiya. – He or she is my classmate.
- Maestra ko hiya. – She is my teacher.

Waray commonly uses the same pronoun, hiya, for both he and she. The person's identity or the surrounding conversation helps clarify who is being discussed.

C. Sharing Someone's Name

When introducing a person by name, use a simple sentence identifying their name.

Examples:

- Juan an iya ngaran. – His name is Juan.
- Ana an iya ngaran. – Her name is Ana.
- Maria an ngaran han akon nanay. – My mother's name is Maria.

D. Describing Other People

You can add simple descriptions when introducing someone.

Examples:

- Buotan hiya. – He or she is kind.
- Mahigalaon hiya. – He or she is friendly.
- Maduruto hiya. – He or she is hardworking.
- Malipayon hiya. – He or she is happy.

Descriptions provide additional information and help make introductions more meaningful.

E. Asking About Someone

You can ask questions to learn more about a person.

Examples:

- Hin-o hiya? – Who is he or she?
- Ano an iya ngaran? – What is his or her name?
- Kilala mo ba hiya? – Do you know him or her?
- Ano an iyo relasyon? – What is your relationship?

Possible responses:

- Sangkay ko hiya. – He or she is my friend.
- Juan an iya ngaran. – His name is Juan.
- Oo, kilala ko hiya. – Yes, I know him or her.
- Bugto ko hiya. – He or she is my sibling.

VII. Guided Conversations
