Lesson 1: Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction

Level: Beginner

Unit: Fundamentals

I. Learning Objectives

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Identify and understand common Tagalog greetings.
2. Use appropriate greetings depending on the time of day and situation.
3. Introduce themselves using simple Tagalog sentences.
4. Ask and answer basic questions about names and personal information.
5. Use common polite expressions when interacting with others.

II. Lesson Introduction

Greetings are commonly used when meeting someone, starting a conversation, or showing politeness. In Filipino culture, greetings and respectful expectations are important when communicating with family members, friends, teachers, and unfamiliar people.

In this lesson, you will learn how to greet someone, introduce yourself, and respond to simple questions in Tagalog.

Example situation:
Imagine that you are meeting a new classmate for the first time. You want to greet them, introduce yourself, and ask for their name.

You can begin by saying:
“Magandang araw! Ako si Ana. Ano ang pangalan mo?”
This means:
“Good day! I am Ana. What is your name?”

III. Vocabulary

Learn the following words and expressions before proceeding to the activities.

| Tagalog | English Meaning |
|---|---|
| Kamusta? | How are you? |
| Magandang umaga | Good morning |
| Magandang hapon | Good afternoon |
| Magandang gabi | Good evening |
| Paalam | Goodbye |
| Salamat | Thank you |
| Oo | Yes |
| Hindi | No |
| Ako | I / Me |
| Ikaw | You |
| Panganlan | Name |
| Kaibigan | Friend |
| Mabuti | Good / Fine |
| Oo naman | Of course / Certainly |
| Pasensya na | I’m sorry / Excuse me |

Pronunciation Guide

| Word | Pronunciation Guide |
|---|---|
| Kamusta | ka-mus-ta |
| Magandang umaga | ma-gan-dang u-ma-ga |
| Magandang hapon | ma-gan-dang ha-pon |
| Magandang gabi | ma-gan-dang ga-bi |
| Paalam | pa-a-lam |

| | |
|---|---|
| Salamat | sa-la-mat |
| Kaibigan | ka-i-bi-gan |
| Pangalan | pa-nga-lan |
| Mabuti | ma-bu-ti |
| Pasensya na | pa-sen-sya na |

Pronunciation reminder: Read each syllable clearly. Avoid rushing through longer expressions. Listen to the audio pronunciation and repeat each word.

IV. Common Greetings and Their Usage

1. Magandang Umaga

   Meaning: Good morning

   Used when greeting someone in the morning.

   Ex.

   A: Magandang umaga!

   B: Magandang umaga rin!

2. Magandang Hapon

   Meaning: Good afternoon

   Used when greeting someone during the afternoon.

   Ex.

   A: Magandang hapon po, Guro!

   B: Magandang hapon din sa iyo!

3. Magandang Gabi

   Meaning: Good evening

   Used when greeting someone in the evening.

   Ex.

   A: Magandang gabi!

   B: Magandang gabi rin!

4. Kamusta?

   Meaning: How are you?

   Used to ask someone how they are doing.

   Ex.

   A: Kamusta ka?

   B: Mabuti naman. Ikaw?

A: Mabuti rin, salamat!

5. Paalam

   Meaning: Goodbye

   Used when leaving or ending a conversation.

   Ex.

   A: Paalam! Magkita tayo bukas.

   B: Sige! Ingat Ka!

V. Self-Introduction

A self-introduction is a way of telling someone basic information about yourself.

Here are some useful sentence patterns:

| Tagalog Sentence | English Meaning |
|---|---|
| Ako si Ana. | I am Ana. |
| Ang pangalan ko ay Ana. | My name is Ana. |
| Ano ang pangalan mo? | What is your name? |
| Taga-saan ka? | Where are you from? |
| Taga-Angeles City ako. | I am from Angeles City. |
| Ikanagagalak kitang makilala. | Nice to meet you. |
| Ilang taon ka na? | How old are you? |
| Ako ay 19 taong gulang. | I am 19 years old. |

Important Sentence Patterns

Pattern 1: Introducing Your Name

Ako si + Name.

Example:

- Ako si Maria.
- Ako si Juan.
- Ako si Carlos.

Pattern 2: Asking Someone's Name

Ano ang pangalan mo?

Pattern 3: Saying Where You Are From

Taga- + Place + ako.

Example:

- Taga-Manila ako.
- Taga-Pampanga ako.
- Taga-Cebu ako.

Pattern 4: Asking Where Someone Is From

Taga-saan ka?

VI. Guided Conversation

Read the conversation below. Pay attention to how the speakers greet each other and introduce themselves.

Situation: Two students meet for the first time at school.

Ana: Magandang umaga!

Mark: Magandang umaga rin!

Ana: Ako si Ana. Ano ang pangalan mo?

Mark: Ako si Mark. Ikinagagalak kitang makilala.

Ana: Ikinagagalak din kitang makilala! Taga-saan ka?

Mark: Kamusta ka naman?

Ana: Mabuti naman, salamat. Ikaw?

Mark: Mabuti rin!

Ana: Sige, magkita na lang tayo mamaya. Paalam!

Mark: Paalam! Ingat ka!

Conversation Comprehension

Answer the following questions based on the conversation.

1. What greeting did Ana use?
2. What is the name of the second student?
3. Where is Mark from?
4. How did Ana respond when Mark asked how she was?
5. What expression did they use when ending their conversation?

VII. Learning Activities

Activity 1: Match the Greeting

Match the Tagalog expression with its English meaning

| Tagalog | English Meaning |
|---|---|

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. Magandang umaga | A. Goodbye |
| 2. Salamat | B. Good evening |
| 3. Paalam | C. Thank you |

IX. Gamification and Rewards

Suggested application rewards for this lesson:

| Activity | Suggested XP |
|---|---|
| Complete vocabulary learning | 10 XP |
| Finish guided conversation | 10 XP |
| Complete matching activity | 5 XP |
| Complete sentence exercises | 10 XP |
| Complete speaking practice | 10 XP |
| Pass lesson assessment | 15 XP |
| Total | 60 XP |

Suggested achievement: First Words Badge

Awarded after successfully completing the first lesson.

Lesson completion requirement: Obtain at least 70% in the lesson assessment. Learners may repeat the activities and assessment if they do not meet the requirement.

X. Facial Expression Recognition Integration

Facial expression recognition can be incorporated as a supplementary feature during selected learning activities.

Suggested implementation:

1. Before the lesson, the application may ask learners to indicate how they feel about starting the lesson.
2. During the lesson, the application may detect visible facial-expression patterns, provided the learner has granted camera permission.

3. If the system detects signs that may indicate frustration or difficulty, it can offer an optional hint, a short break, or a review activity.
4. After the lesson, learners may provide feedback about their learning experience.

Important: Facial expressions must not be treated as definitive evidence of a learner's emotions, comprehension, or performance. Learners should be able to complete lessons without enabling the camera. Facial-expression data should not determine grades or quiz correctness.

XI. Lesson Completion Criteria

A learner is considered to have completed this lesson after:

- Finishing the vocabulary section.
- Completing the guided conversation.
- Completing the learning activities.
- Attempting the speaking practice.
- Obtaining at least 70% in the lesson assessment.

XII. Expected Learning Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to greet another person, introduce themselves, ask for someone's name and basic information, and respond to simple introductory questions using common Tagalog expressions.

Lesson 2: Common Expressions and Responses

Level: Beginner
Unit: Fundamentals
Prerequisite: Lesson 1 – Basic Greetings and Self-Introduction

I. Learning Objectives

At the end of this lesson, learners should be able to:

1. Recognize common Tagalog expressions used in everyday conversations.
2. Understand and use polite expressions when communicating with others.
3. Respond appropriately to simple questions and statements.
4. Express gratitude, apologies, agreement, disagreement, and requests.
5. Participate in short conversations using appropriate responses.

II. Lesson Introduction

People communicate with one another every day. Aside from greetings and introductions, conversations often involve thanking someone, asking for help, apologizing, agreeing, or responding to questions.

In Tagalog, some expressions are commonly used to show respect and politeness. One example is the word "po," which is often added when speaking respectfully to elders, teachers, and people one wishes to address politely.

In this lesson, you will learn expressions that can help you communicate naturally in everyday situations.

Example situation:
Your classmate lends you a pen. You want to thank them.
You can say:
"Maraming salamat!"

If you accidentally bump into someone, you can say:
"Pasensya na!"

These expressions help make everyday conversations more polite and meaningful.

IV. Important Language Notes

1. Using "Po" and "Opo"

   The words po and opo are commonly used to express respect.

   - Po is generally added to a sentence to make it more respectful.
   - Opo is a respectful way of saying "yes."

   Examples:

| Ordinary Expression | Respectful Expression |
|---|---|
| Salamat. | Salamat po. |
| Oo. | Opo. |
| Pasensya na. | Pasensya na po. |
| Kumusta ka? | Kumusta po kayo? |
| Sige. | Opo, sige po. |

   Remember: Using "po" and "opo" depends on the relationship and situation. They are especially common when speaking to elders, teachers, and unfamiliar adults. They are not required in every conversation.

2. Using "Ikaw" and "Kayo"

   - Ikaw – informal singular "you."
   - Kayo – plural "you," or a respectful form when addressing one person.

   Examples:

   - Kumusta ka? – How are you?
   - Kumusta kayo? – How are you all?
   - Kumusta po kayo? – How are you? (Respectful)

3. Responding Naturally
   A conversation does not always require a long response. Sometimes a short expression is enough.

   Examples:
   - Salamat! → Walang anuman!
   - Pasensya na! → Ayos lang!
   - Maaari ba? → Oo, sige!
   - Hindi ko alam. → Sige, tutulungan kita.

V. Guided Conversation

VIII. Gamification and Reward

Suggested XP distribution:

| Activity | XP |
|---|---|
| Complete vocabulary learning | 10 XP |
| Finished guided conversations | 10 XP |
| Complete matching activity | 5 XP |
| Complete sentence exercise | 10 XP |
| Complete speaking practice | 10 XP |
| Pass lesson assessment | 15 XP |
| Total | 60 XP |

Suggested achievement: Polite Communicator Badge
Awarded after completing the lesson and passing the assessment.

Lesson completion requirement: At least 70% in the lesson assessment.

Learners who do not reach the required score may review the vocabulary, language notes, and conversations before retaking the assessment.

IX. Facial Expression Recognition Integration

The facial expression recognition feature may be incorporated during the speaking and interactive practice activities.

Suggested implementation:

1. Before the speaking activity, learners may optionally enable their camera.
2. The application can observe visible facial-expression patterns while the learner practices.
3. If the system detects patterns that may indicate difficulty of discomfort, it can offer an optional hint, review, or break.
4. Learners can also manually select whether they found the activity easy, difficult, or enjoyable.

Important considerations:

- Facial expressions do not reliably establish whether a learner understands a word or sentence.
- Camera access must be optional.
- The system must not penalize learners based on facial expressions.
- Quiz scores and actual activity performance should remain the primary indicators of learning progress.

X. Lesson Completion Criteria

The learner must:

- Complete the vocabulary section.
- Review the language notes.
- Finish the guided conversations.
- Complete the interactive exercises.
- Attempt the speaking activity.
- Obtain at least 70% in the assessment.

XI. Expected Learning Outcome

After completing this lesson, learners should be able to use common Tagalog expressions in everyday conversations, respond appropriately to simple statements and questions, and demonstrate politeness when expressing gratitude, apologizing, agreeing, disagreeing, and requesting assistance.

Suggested application implementation

For this lesson, the following interactive features would be particularly useful:

- Vocabulary cards: Display a Tagalog expression, its English meaning, and an audio button.
- Conversation practice: Allow learners to listen to dialogues and choose appropriate responses.
- Pronunciation practice: Let learners record themselves repeating expressions.
- Gamified exercises: Award XP for completing each activity.
- Adaptive review: Reintroduce expressions the learner frequently answers incorrectly.
